American Bar Association 55th Annual Antitrust Spring Meeting

2007-04-18

Partners James Lowe and Douglas Melamed were featured panelists at this annual two-day event presented by the American Bar Association. Panel sessions in which they participated were entitled "Intellectual Property and the Antitrust Review of Mergers and Acquisitions" and "'Liar, Liar, Pants on Fire': Deceptive Conduct by Dominant Firms: Implications for Antitrust and Consumer Protection," respectively. Mr. Melamed also participated in a Roundtable on "Remedies for Abuse of Dominance" for international competition enforcement officials. Click here for further details.
