WELCOME

Dear Colleague,

The Section of Antitrust Law of the American Bar Association and the International Bar Association are pleased to invite you to the Seventh International Cartel Workshop on January 30 - February 1, 2008. After a hugely successful run in London in 2006, this widely acclaimed program will return to the United States at the Ritz-Carlton, San Francisco.

This Workshop will cover more topics, tackle new issues, and bring together more jurisdictions than ever before. The faculty of 75 of the most accomplished cartel attorneys in the world includes: senior cartel enforcement officials from seven jurisdictions; cartel defense practitioners from 10 countries; and members of the plaintiffs bar from the United States, Canada, and Europe. Continuing the tradition of instruction by demonstration, the faculty will present a hypothetical case, from detection by government enforcers through the disposition of government prosecutions and the settlement of private purchaser litigation.

The 2-1/2 day program will take you inside:

- Internal discussions of the cartel enforcement agencies;
- Meetings of the general counsel of a target company with outside counsel from around the world;
- Sessions with executives, with and without amnesty; and
- Decisions in the Boardroom, from seeking leniency to going to trial.

You also will sit in on:

- Defense counsel meetings as they plan and put in place a joint defense strategy;
- Plaintiffs' counsel collaborations as they develop and prosecute damage actions;
- The negotiation of individual and corporate plea agreements in different jurisdictions; and
- The negotiation of US private damage settlements on behalf of US and foreign purchasers.

We hope you will join us in San Francisco for this exciting event. Space will be limited at the Ritz-Carlton, so please make your arrangements soon.
