NOTIFICATION OF DOCKET ENTRY

This docket entry was made by the Clerk on Wednesday, April 8, 2020:

MINUTE entry before the Honorable Gabriel A. Fuentes: Per Paragraph 2(c) of the District Court's Second Amended General Order No. 20-0012, the Court in this matter, and for good cause, is empowered to revoke the further 28-day extension contained in Second Amended General Order. Good cause for such a revocation may exist, insofar as plaintiff previously objected for an extension of time to complete expert discovery until 4/17/20, amid concerns that about the progress of the case. The Court is inclined, however, against revoking the further 28-day extension of the discovery schedule in this matter, given the parties' need to take multiple depositions, and given the uncertainty associated with the COVID-19 public health emergency. Accordingly, the Court's order (doc. #[266]) for a joint status report due on 7/01/20 stands, but otherwise, pending the issuance of any further amended general orders concerning the functioning of the Court during the COVID-19 public health emergency, all status hearings are stricken, to be reset by further order of the Court, and all discovery deadlines including fact and expert discovery cutoff dates are extended by an additional 28 days. Mailed notice. (jj, )
