

LITIGATION/CONTROVERSY

International IP Litigation

As businesses expand globally, it is more critical than ever to protect intellectual property and develop winning strategies for patent litigation across international jurisdictions. When the stakes are high, WilmerHale's preeminent IP Litigation Practice delivers a fully integrated team of lawyers who work together cohesively to manage intellectual property litigation in the United States, United Kingdom, Germany and China, and across all other major jurisdictions.

WILMERHALE®

Our lawyers have tried some of the most high-profile cases in the world. Named IP Litigation Department of the Year by The American Lawyer in 2014, we regularly represent clients in federal district courts throughout the United States and the US International Trade Commission, and in patent appeals before the US Supreme Court and Federal Circuit. Our UK and German lawyers have represented clients in the Supreme Courts in the UK and Germany and in the Court of Justice of the European Union. Our lawyers handle litigation cases for clients in China as well. We offer the advantage of truly seamless service and unmatched resources drawn from the firm's comprehensive range of practices, and our team is backed by the academic and industry experience of 120 lawyers and technology specialists holding scientific or technical degrees.

THE WILMERHALE ADVANTAGE

- 1 Our IP litigation practice is widely regarded as being preeminent in the United States.
- 2 We have highly regarded practitioners with exceptional experience in the UK and Germany, handling landmark cases up to the highest levels. Our firm is unique in that we possess both a premier US IP litigation practice and capabilities in the UK, Germany and China.
- 3 Because our lawyers are part of the same fully integrated team, we are able to provide seamless, efficient service to our clients. When clients work with our highly regarded team, they see the same quality, depth and breadth of service across jurisdictions.
- 4 We have extensive experience handling matters internationally, and take a holistic approach to advising clients on where to bring litigation to maximize their advantage. We are a single team, offering benefits to our clients no matter where the litigation may be. With access to the full resources of our US litigation practice, our lawyers handling matters in Europe and China have the advantage of pulling from a pool of skilled, cost-effective discovery attorneys and technology specialists.

Breadth of Experience

UNITED KINGDOM

England, with its specialist Patents Court and Intellectual Property Enterprise Court, is one of the leading IP jurisdictions in Europe. We are able to represent and advise clients across the full range of intellectual property disputes, including those relating to patents, breach of confidence and trade secrets, trademarks, passing off, domain names, copyright, registered designs and design right. Our highly regarded lawyers have exceptional experience litigating landmark cases from trial up to the highest levels in the UK, including on a number of occasions the House of Lords and UK Supreme Court and the Court of Justice of the European Union.

UNITED STATES

WilmerHale's IP Litigation Practice boasts a leading patent, copyright and trademark litigation team. Our lawyers excel in handling IP disputes across multiple jurisdictions and at every level of the justice system, securing high-stakes jury verdicts in district courts, obtaining favorable results in adversarial proceedings in the Patent Office, and achieving appellate wins in the Federal Circuit and US Supreme Court. We are routinely called upon by the world's largest companies to help them protect their most important intellectual property in "bet the company" patent cases. We have repeatedly appeared in the venues most frequently utilized to settle intellectual property disputes, including the Northern District of California, Central District of California, District of Delaware, Eastern District of Texas, International Trade Commission and Federal Circuit.

GERMANY

WilmerHale's Berlin and Frankfurt offices boast a strong intellectual property litigation practice, with a focus on high-stakes, high-profile matters on behalf of our clients. Our team in Germany represents companies, associations, universities and research institutes in all aspects of industrial property rights and intellectual property law, with an emphasis on trademark and patent infringement litigation. We have one of Germany's largest trademark practices, and our team of patent litigators regularly handles patent infringement and invalidity actions in all major German courts as well as opposition proceedings. Our clients range from large US companies coping with multi-jurisdictional patent issues to German market leaders in highly specialized technology sectors.

CHINA

Our China team offers clients an unparalleled depth and scope of service, keeping with the firm's tradition of sophisticated problem solving at the intersection of business, government and regulation. Supported by the depth and breadth of WilmerHale's US and European offices, Partner Song Zhu's work has included representing a US company in a patent infringement and trade secret action in China against Chinese defendants, which led to the largest recovery ever by a foreign company in China. We can assist clients with IP litigation, licensing, counseling, procurement, opinion and due diligence, and have represented clients from the United States, China, Europe and Japan, including multinational companies and technology startups, in IP litigation matters. Members of the team have represented clients on patent aspects of mergers and acquisitions, and filed and prosecuted appeals before the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences of the US Patent and Trademark Office.

IP ARBITRATION

WilmerHale's premier International Arbitration Group has successfully represented clients in numerous significant institutional and ad hoc arbitrations involving disputes regarding intellectual property rights. This experience crosses a broad range of arbitration institutions and rules, including the World Intellectual Property Organization, ICC International Court of Arbitration, London Court of International Arbitration, Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, Singapore International Arbitration Centre and American Arbitration Association, among others, and is truly global in scope. Our arbitration practice is consistently recognized as being at the top of its field, and is highly ranked in Chambers, Global Arbitration Review, U.S. News - Best Lawyers[®] and other directories. Partner Gary Born is the exclusive recipient of the 2014 Client Choice Award for Arbitration in the UK from International Law Office, and Best Lawyers in America named Senior Counsel James Carter the New York City Arbitration Lawyer of the Year in 2014.
