Re: Attestation of Electronic Signature

To Whom It May Concern,

In accordance with Item 302(b)(2) of Regulation S-T, the purpose of this letter is to confirm that, when I use an electronic signature as permitted by Item 302(b)(1) of Regulation S-T with respect to any registration statement, report or other document filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), whether in my capacity as an officer or director of the Company, as an attorney-in-fact, or in my individual capacity, such electronic signature constitutes the legal equivalent of my manual signature for purposes of authenticating the signature to any filing for which it is provided.

I understand that the Company will retain this letter and furnish it to the SEC or its staff, upon their request.

I have manually signed this letter on [date] at [time].
