

AGENDA

(All times below are displayed in local time)

12:00-13:00

Networking lunch and registration

13:00-13:05

GCR opening remarks

13:05-13:10

Chairs' opening remarks

Lisa M Phelan, Co-chair Global Antitrust law Practice, Morrison Foerster
Nana Wilberforce, Partner, Antitrust & Competition, WilmerHale

13:10-13:40

Keynote address

13:40-14:40

The impact of a new administration on cartel conduct

- How will the new administration's priorities influence anti-cartel enforcement strategies and targets?
- Will a change in FTC and DOJ leadership see collusion theories used to deter ESG efforts?
- How could US policy changes impact international cooperation against cartels?

14:40-15:10

Networking break

15:10-16:10

Information sharing in the context of developing technologies

- What are practical ways to protect against high-stake litigation alleging price coordination by use of algorithms or pricing software, when technology is part of daily operation?
- How does the suing of RealPage by DOJ exemplify enforcers concerns around pricing algorithms?
- Will recent DOJ intervention lead to stricter regulation and policy around AI?

16:10-17:10

Postmortem on the Generic Drugs investigations and cases

- How did the Generics cases start?
- Were there features of this industry that were ripe for collusion?
- What were the unusual remedies in the corporate resolutions?

17:10-17:15

Chairs' closing remarks

Lisa M Phelan, Co-chair Global Antitrust law Practice, Morrison Foerster
Nana Wilberforce, Partner, Antitrust & Competition, WilmerHale

17:15-17:20

GCR closing remarks

17:20-18:20

Networking drinks reception

REGISTER HERE

Tickets are available on a complimentary basis. Please note, registration is subject to approval.