

PLEASE SEND INFORMATION ON PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES
TO AMANDA ESQUIBEL IN PRACTICE
DEVELOPMENT, FOR FUTURE ISSUES OF WCP - IN THE NEWS.

Press Pieces & Other Publicity

Ambassador Charlene Barshefsky was interviewed on National Public Radio's Talk of the Nation regarding the relationship between Middle East free trade and international security ("Analysis: US-Middle East Free Trade Zone," June 3, 2003).

Brandon Becker was quoted in a Wall Street Journal article regarding a request by the National Association of Securities Dealers asking its member securities firms to comment on a rule-change proposal that would require Wall Street chief executives to certify annually the adequacy of their firms' securities compliance procedures ("NASD Wants Street CEOs to Certify Their Compliance," June 5, 2003).

Patrick Carome, Samir Jain and Colin Rushing were mentioned in a Telecommunication Industry Litigation Reporter article regarding the firm's representation of America Online in a case that ruled that Internet service providers, such as AOL, are immune under the federal Communications Decency Act from any claims that seek to treat the company as the publisher of content provided by another person ("AOL Can't Be Sued for Failing to Stop Anti-Muslim Harassment," June 3, 2003).

Matthew Chambers was quoted in a Dow Jones Newswire article regarding a new rule approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission that allows companies engaged in research and development more leeway to raise and spend money ("SEC Adopts Strong Rules for Corporate Internal Controls," May 27, 2003).

Juanita Crowley was quoted in an Inside The GSEs article regarding the arrival of Jamie Gorelick at WCP ("Gorelick Decides to Take New Law Job," May 28, 2003).

Lloyd Cutler was mentioned in several articles regarding his participation in the Continuity of Government Commission and its recommendation that Congress should pass a constitutional amendment directing lawmakers to ensure that the legislative branch can survive a catastrophic terrorist attack or natural disaster, including articles in the Washington Post ("Amendment to Be Recommended on Continuity of Congress; Panel to Report on Keeping Legislative Branch Functioning if Terrorism Were to Incapacitate Capital," May 25, 2003), Grand Rapids Press ("Congress Urged to Prepare for the Worst," June 1, 2003), Congress Daily ("Group to Unveil Amendment to Fill Vacant Seats in Catastrophe," June 4, 2003), National Law Journal ("Fretting Over U.S. Data Collection," June 2, 2003), Wall Street Journal ("Decapitating Congress," June 4, 2003), and a Washington Times editorial ("Ensuring Congressional Continuity," June 4, 2003). Lloyd also was mentioned in several articles regarding a 1993 proposal to abolish the Senate filibuster, including articles in the Baltimore Sun ("Nothing Conservative About Filibuster Fight," May 23, 2003), and the Chicago Tribune ("Why We Need the Filibuster," May 27, 2003).

David Donovan was quoted in a Legal Times article regarding trends in acceptance rates for 2003 summer associates at Washington, D.C., law firms ("Finding the Right Size," June 9, 2003, page 31).

Boyden Gray was quoted in a PR Newswire article regarding the U.S. Senate's opposition to the nomination of Judge Carolyn Kuhl to the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals ("CFJ Asks Why Are Senate Liberals Using a Double Standard to Keep a Woman Off the Federal Court?" May 27, 2003).

Boyden also was quoted in several articles regarding the Republican strategy for responding to potential upcoming vacancies on the U.S. Supreme Court, including articles in the Recorder ("Getting Guns Ready for Next Nominations War," June 9, 2003), Legal Times ("Left and Right, Activists Gird for Court Fight," June 9, 2003), and the Broward Daily Business Review ("U.S. Supreme Court," June 10, 2003). Boyden was mentioned in several articles regarding his election to the board of directors of Richmond's Media General Inc., including articles in the Richmond Times-Dispatch ("MG Might Benefit From FCC Decision," May 24, 2003), PR Newswire ("Media General Shareholders Elect Directors at Annual Meeting," May 23, 2003), Knight-Ridder Tribune Business News ("Richmond, VA-Based Media Company Might Benefit From FCC Decision," May 24, 2003), and in a Washington Times article regarding his joining the Tudor Place board of trustees ("Gardens Bloom for Georgetowners at Tudor Place," May 22, 2003).

Ted Killory was quoted in a Texas Lawyer article regarding the firm's pro bono work leading to exoneration for 38 Tulia defendants who were previously convicted on felony drug charges ("Relief Denied in Habeas Appeal in 'Fake Drug' Case," May 26, 2003).

Lewis Liman and Bill McLucas were mentioned in a Wall Street Journal article regarding the firm's representation of Tyco International, Ltd. ("Two Journeys: How a Tyco Lawyer Channeled Windfall Into Unlikely Cause," June 4, 2003).

Bill McLucas was mentioned in numerous articles regarding the publication of an investigative report prepared by WCP, that profiled WorldCom's internal controls, systems of corporate governance, and corporate culture, including articles in the Wall Street Journal, USA Today, Newsday, the Daily Deal, Financial Times, CNNfn, the Washington Post, the New York Times, and the Los Angeles Times. Bill also was quoted in a New York Law Journal article regarding the Securities and Exchange Commission's role in collecting judgments against securities law violators ("SEC's Judgment Collections Lag Behind," May 22, 2003) and was mentioned in a Washington Post article regarding the firm's representation of Tyco ("Former Tyco Executive Wants N.Y. Judge to Dismiss Charges," May 23, 2003, page E2).

Christopher Meade was mentioned in a New York Law Journal article as being among the recipients of the New York State Bar Association's President's Pro Bono Service Awards ("Pro Bono," May 30, 2003).

Eric Mogilnicki was quoted in an American Banker article regarding a U.S. Supreme Court decision in a class action case that could have a broad influence on the financial services industry by impacting their exposure to lawsuits through the use of arbitration clauses in customer agreements ("Class-Action Arbitration: Next Big Litigation Thing?" June 11, 2003).

Andrew Vollmer was cited and WCP was mentioned in several articles regarding a settlement between the SEC and Xerox, including articles in the Associated Press Newswire ("Paul A. Allaire, Former Chairman and CEO of Xerox Corporation and Barry D. Romeril, Former Vice Chairman and CFO, Settle SEC Allegations," June 5, 2003), Reuters ("Former Xerox Execs to Pay $22 Million to Settle Probe," June 5, 2003), Chicago Tribune ("$22 Million Settlement in Xerox Fraud Case," June 6, 2003), and the Australian ("Xerox Six Settle Charges for $33m [AUS]," June 7, 2003).

Seth Waxman was mentioned in a Legal Times article regarding the Supreme Court's summer schedule for consideration of appeals in cases involving the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act ("Campaign Finance Case: Let the Briefing Begin," June 9, 2003). Seth also was quoted in a Recorder article regarding the firm's representation of Dow Chemical in Dow Chemical Co. v. Stephenson ("High Court Affirms 2nd Circuit in Agent Orange Case," June 10, 2003).

Jean O'Grady was quoted in an American Lawyer article regarding the evolving role and applications of library services at law firms ("Forget the Images," June 1, 2003).

WCP was mentioned in a Texas Lawyer article regarding the firm's pro bono work leading to exoneration for 38 Tulia defendants who were previously convicted on felony drug charges ("Out on a Limb," June 9, 2003).

WCP was mentioned in a Washington Post article as being among several companies and government agencies that have committed to hiring or sponsoring jobs for young D.C. residents ("City Seeks Summer Jobs For Youth; 4,000-Position Shortfall For Teens Who Signed Up," June 12, 2003).

WCP was mentioned in an American Lawyer article regarding the firm's representation of Credit Suisse First Boston Corporation ("Collateral Damage," June 1, 2003).

Speeches, Panels and Presentations

Lloyd Cutler participated in a joint project briefing to release and discuss its report on “Preserving Our Institutions: Continuity of Congress After a Catastrophic Attack,” sponsored by the American Enterprise Institute (AEI) and the Brookings Institution Continuity of Government Commission, on June 4, 2003.

Bill Wilkins participated in a luncheon program on “Nonprofit Governance in a Post-Enron Era,” sponsored by the D.C. Bar Association Taxation Section, on June 4, 2003.

Articles, Books & Newsletters

Andrew Currie and Sean McCann co-authored an article for the American Bankruptcy Institute Journal regarding a decision that overturned a bankruptcy court’s approval of certain first-day motions, including the motion seeking authority to pay the pre-petition claims of critical trade vendors and foreign investors in Capital Factors v. Kmart Corp. (“Hold on to Those Payments, Critical Vendors: Capital Factors v. Kmart,” June 2003, page 1).

WCP’s Financial Institutions Group issued a newsletter regarding the publication of the long-awaited final rules to implement the customer identification requirements of section 326 of the USA Patriot Act (“The Treasury Department Issues Final Customer Identification Rules Under Section 326 of the USA Patriot Act,” Financial Institutions Group Newsletter, May 23, 2003).

WCP’s Telecommunications Group issued a Telecommunications Law Update regarding a review by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States on the proposed sale of bankrupt telecommunications giant Global Crossing (“CFIUS and Global Crossing,” May 23, 2003). The Group also issued an Update on the Federal Communications Commission’s decision to revise broadcast ownership rules (“FCC Substantially Relaxes Broadcast Ownership Rules,” June 10, 2003).

WCP’s Securities Group issued a Securities Law Developments newsletter regarding the recently enacted Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Act of 2003 (“New Reduced Tax Rate on Dividends Will Affect Securities Lending,” June 3, 2003).

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION, OR ANY WCP MARKETING INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT PRACTICE DEVELOPMENT AT
AMANDA.ESQUIBEL@WILMER.COM