

PLEASE SEND
INFORMATION ON PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES
TO CONE JORDAN IN PRACTICE
DEVELOPMENT, FOR FUTURE ISSUES OF
WCP - IN THE NEWS.

Press Pieces and Other Publicity

Ambassador Charlene

Barshefsky was quoted in several articles, in connection with China's one year anniversary in the WTO, including articles in the Associated Press Newswires ("One Year On, China's WTO Membership Reflects Its Struggle to Embrace the Future," December 10, 2002); the Canadian Press ("After One Year, China's WTO Membership Reflects Struggle to Adapt," December 10, 2002); the Winnipeg Free Press ("China Eager to Reap Benefit of Open Market: Beijing Marks First Anniversary of WTO Inauguration," December 11, 2002); the Duluth News-Tribune ("China's Rising Tide of Trade—World Trade Organization: Country of 1.3 Billion Consumers Struggles to Absorb Changes Wrought by Opening Worldwide Markets," December 11, 2002); Tulsa World (China Marks Trade Anniversary," December 11, 2002); the Columbian ("China Marks First Year of WTO Membership," December 11, 2002); and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch ("China's First Year In WTO Reflects the Country's Inner Conflicts," December 12, 2002).

Lloyd Cutler was quoted in a Presidential Studies Quarterly article concerning ideas on preserving a paper trail of what takes place in the White House ("Knowing What Really Happened," December 1, 2002). Lloyd and Boyden Gray were mentioned in a Financial Times article concerning the "Washington Power Brokers" ("Whose Town Is It Away?," December 7, 2002).

Charles Davidow was quoted in a Financial Times article in connection with the procedures WCP uses to help track mistakes ("Keeping the Lawyers on the Level," December 11, 2002).

Boyden Gray was noted in a National Journal article concerning his involvement with the Committee for Justice ("Judicial-Confirmation Battle Stations," December 7, 2002).

Boyden was quoted in a USA Today article in connection with the firm's representation of the Wine and Spirits Wholesalers of America ("Interstate Wine Sales Start to Flow," December 16, 2002).

David Medine was quoted in an American Banker article concerning banks being on the Do-Not-Call Registry ("FTC Wants Banks on Do-Not-Call Registry," December 19, 2002).

Thomas Mueller was quoted in a Legal Media Group article concerning the EU merger reforms ("Lawyers Divided Over EU Merger Test Reform," December 15, 2002, online).

John Payton was quoted in several articles, in connection with the firm's representation of the University of Michigan and affirmative action, including articles in American Lawyer Media ("Lawyer With Republican Ties to Defend Affirmative Action," December 9, 2002); the Recorder ("Center Lends Conservative Voice to Race Debate," December 10, 2002); and the Legal Times ("Center Ring," December 13, 2002).

Sven Voelker was quoted in a Wall Street Journal Europe article concerning EU rules ("France Telecom's Cash Injection May Be Threatened by EU Rules," December 6, 2002).

Seth Waxman was noted in several publications, concerning his connection in the campaign finance debate, including: the Fort Worth Star-Telegram ("Court May Shape Future of Campaign Finances," December 3, 2002); the San Jose Mercury News ("Campaign Finance Hits Courts: Star Legal Teams to Face Off Over 'Soft Money'," December 3, 2002); the Tallahassee Democrat ("Finance Law Goes to Court: Attorneys to Debate Whether Contributions Are Protected," December 3, 2002); the Times Union ("Election Finance Law Goes to Court," December 3, 2002); the Deseret News ("Face-Off Time for Campaign Law," December 3, 2002); the San Diego Union-Tribune ("High-Powered Legal Talent to Contest Campaign Finance Law," December 3, 2002); the Atlanta Journal - Constitution ("Campaign Finance Law Faces

First Legal Test Today,” December 4, 2002); and the American Political Network (“National Briefing Campaign Finance: Battle of the Legal Stars!,” December 9, 2002). Seth also was quoted in the Christian Science Monitor (“Do Property Rights Cover Interest Earnings? The Court Hears a Case That May Affect the Options the Government Has to Raise Funds,” December 9, 2002) and the Los Angeles Times (“$5 Dispute Could Decide Fate of Legal Aid Program: Supreme Court Will Decide Whether Escrow Interest Can Be Used for Low-Income People,” December 10, 2002), in connection with the firm’s representation of IOLTA.

Roger Witten was quoted in several publications concerning the campaign finance reforms, including: the New York Times (“2 Sides Open Fight Over Campaign Law,” December 5, 2002); the San Diego Union-Tribune (“Campaign Money Law Gets First Legal Test,” December 5, 2002); the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel (“Campaign Reform Takes a Pounding,” December 8, 2002); and the Charleston Gazette (“Campaign Reform Takes a Pounding,” December 15, 2002).

WCP was noted in a Financial Times article (“The Arts - Studies in Renaissance Sensibilities - Visual Arts London - William Packer Advises Admirers,” December 17, 2002), and in the Times (“Brush With Law - City Diary,” December 17, 2002) in connection with the firm’s sponsorship of the Albrecht Durer exhibition.

WCP was cited in a Recorder article in connection with the firm’s policy on using cell phones for business while driving in a car (“Cooley Accident Case Prompts Phone Policies,” December 9, 2002).

WCP was noted in a Reuters English News Service article concerning the firm’s representation of United Air Lines (“USA: Asks Court to Approve an Array of Advisors,” December 9, 2002).

Speeches, Panels, & Presentations

Yoon-Young Lee and Harry Weiss were panelists at the SIA Corporate Governance & Research Conference in New York December 5-6, 2002. Yoon-Young spoke on legal and compliance issues regarding the new research analyst rules; Harry spoke on the SEC enforcement and private litigation provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

Boyden Gray was a participant at a commerce discussion on improved regulatory affairs in Washington, D.C., at a program entitled “How Can the Government Improve,” sponsored by American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy and the Brookings Institute Joint Center on December 11, 2002.

Bill McLucas participated in a panel discussion about the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, during a web cast sponsored by PricewaterhouseCoopers on December 10, 2002. Bill shared information on how America and WCP are responding to reform.

Ambassador Charlene Barshefsky will be speaking at the International Trade Law Conference, sponsored by Georgetown University Law Center, January 30-31, 2003, at the University’s Law Center.

Books, Articles, & Other Writings

Boyden Gray wrote an article for the Wall Street Journal concerning dispute resolutions (“Damage Control,” December 11, 2002).

The Wilmer Cutler & Pickering EC Competition Law Report for January-March 2002 is now available. Editors of this report are Sven Voelker, John Ratliff, Christian Duvernoy, Thomas Mueller, Charles Stark, and Marisa Kakoulas.

WCP’s International Aviation, Defense, and Aerospace Group issued an alert concerning government contracts and their enforcement (“Contract Indemnification is it Enforceable?,” December 11, 2002).

WCP’s EU Financial Services Group issued a briefing on FSA CP153 review (“You Can’t Say You Weren’t Warned! CP 153 - Alternative Trading Systems,” December 12, 2002).

WCP’s EU Competition Practice Group issued a newsletter discussing the new merger control reforms (“European Commission Adopts Merger Control Reform Package,” December 13, 2002).

WCP’s Antitrust Group issued an update concerning merger investigations guidelines (“FTC Bureau of Competition Implements New Guidelines for Merger Investigations,” December 17, 2002).

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION, OR ANY WCP MARKETING INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT CONI JORDAN IN THE PRACTICE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT BY EMAIL AT CONSTANCE.JORDAN@WILMER.COM