

WCP IN THE NEWS

PLEASE SEND INFORMATION ON PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES TO
SUSAN WADDINGTON IN PRACTICE
DEVELOPMENT, FOR FUTURE ISSUES OF
WCP - IN THE NEWS.

HONORS & APPOINTMENTS

Veronica Kayne was named a member of the American Antitrust Institute's advisory board.

Kurt Schmoke was appointed chairman of a panel on discrimination that will study the impact of discrimination against people struggling to recover from alcohol and drug disorders, and make policy recommendations. This discrimination policy panel is a joint effort of Join Together, a project of Boston University School of Public Health, and the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Substance Abuse.

PRESS PIECES & OTHER PUBLICITY

Greg Baer was quoted and pictured in the American Banker regarding the recent ruling issued by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency on preemption, finder activities, and other technical matters related to electronic banking ("OCC Internet Rule Debate Hinges on One Word," May 21, 2002, p. 1).

Ambassador Charlene Barshefsky was noted in a Washington Post article about the relationship between Robert Zoellick and Pascal Lamy ("Trade's Friendly Warriors," May 28, 2002, p. E1), and was quoted in the South China Morning Post ("Long Pledges Agriculture Support," May 22, 2002, p. 4) and The Washington Post ("Steel Dispute Escalates in Asia," May 23, 2002, p. E1) about China's plans to impose new tariffs on imported steel. Charlene also was noted in several newspapers (The Dominion, The Christchurch Press, The Press) about New Zealand's chances to secure a free-trade agreement with the United States ("Warning: New Zealand May Miss Trade Deal," May 30, 2002), and was quoted in a BusinessWorld (Philippines) article about the Asian financial crisis ("Perspective: The Resubordination of East Asia," May 28, 2002, p. P1).

Robert Bell was quoted in The Washington Post about the relationship between the top antitrust regulators for Europe and the United States ("Microsoft and the Big Pond," May 17, 2002, p. E1).

Gary Born ("Searching For the Most Favorable Court," p. 35) and Steve Finizio ("New Heft for the Prosecution of Financial Crimes," p. 7) were quoted in the Focus Europe supplement in the June 2002 issue of The American Lawyer.

Lloyd Cutler was noted in Roll Call ("Does the United States Need a Missile Defense System?," May 13, 2002) and The Boston Globe ("Russia Has Loose Grip on Nuclear Stockpiles," May 20, 2002) concerning the findings of the Baker-Cutler study about the security of Russia's nuclear materials.

Enrique Gómez-Pinzón provided commentary in Latin America Advisor about economic conditions in Colombia ("Featured Q&A: What Is the Álvaro Uribe Economic Team's Plan for Colombia?," June 13, 2002, online).

Randy Goodman, Barbara Kirschten, and Michelle Wakino were noted as recent additions to WCP's tax group in The Daily Deal ("Movers & Shakers," June 10, 2002, p. 8), and in Legal Media Group online ("MoFo Loses Senior Tax Trio to Wilmer Cutler," June 9, 2002), where Bill Perlstein was quoted.

Boyden Gray was quoted in a New York Times article about a congressional inquiry into the September 11 terrorist attacks ("Dispute Over September 11 Inquiry Is Part of Broad Struggle Over Powers," May 20, 2002, p. A1). Boyden was noted in a BusinessWeek article about the Southern Co. ("Southern: The New Power in Power," June 3, 2002, p. 62), and in The Las Vegas Review-Journal about judicial nominee Jay Bybee ("U.S. Circuit Court: Bush Taps Ex-UNLV Teacher," May 23, 2002, p. 3B).

Veronica Kayne was noted in the Legal Times as a new member of the American Antitrust Institute's advisory board ("Honors and Appointments," June 10, 2002, p. 19).

Scott Kilgore was quoted (and pictured) in the Washington Business Journal about stock options ("Looking At Another Option," June 7, 2002).

Lewis Liman was noted in The New York Times as one of the lawyers for Samuel D. Waksal, former chief executive of ImClone Systems ("Former Chief of ImClone Systems Is Charged With Insider Trading," June 13, 2002, p. C1).

Eric Mahr was quoted in The Wall Street Journal online about the Airtours merger decision ("Court Annuls EU Decision to Block Airtours Merger," June 6, 2002).

Bill McLucas was quoted in Newsday about the SEC investigation of Halliburton ("Cheney's Old Firm Probed," May 30, 2002, p. A3), and also in Newsday about the SEC's New York office ("Investigators By Trade; SEC's Lawyers, Accountants and Examiners Sift Through Mounds of Paper to Uncover Wrongdoing on Wall Street," May 26, 2002, p. F8). Bill was quoted in the Legal Times about Harvey Pitt ("Harvey Pitt's Lonely Crusade," May 27, 2002, p. 1), and was noted in The Bond Buyer about municipal securities oversight (“Muni Office Languishing Under Pitt,” June 6, 2002, p. 1). Bill also was noted in USA Today about the Arthur Andersen case (“Andersen Witnesses Undergo Tough Cross; One Acknowledges Talk of SEC Inquiry,” June 4, 2002, p. 3B), and in The Wall Street Journal online as one of the lawyers for Samuel D. Waksal (“SEC Charges Ex-ImClone CEO Waksal With Insider Trading,” June 12, 2002). Bill and Lewis Liman were noted in The New York Times concerning the firm’s representation of Tyco (“Tyco Turmoil Deepens As It Fires Lawyer,” June 11, 2002, p. C1), and Bill was quoted in the National Post (“SEC Renews Probe of Tyco’s Buys,” June 12, 2002, p. FP3).

David Medine was quoted in The Washington Post about the USA Patriot Act (“In Terror War, Privacy vs. Security,” June 3, 2002, p. A1), and in Cardline about the FTC’s proposed national do-not-call list (“Card Companies Urged to Monitor FTC Proposal,” June 7, 2002, online).

Doug Melamed was quoted in The Daily Deal about merger reviews (“James at Justice Rues Failed Merger Clearance Accord,” May 22, 2002, p. 3).

Ted Millsbaugh’s participation at a fund-raiser for Advocates for Children and Youth was noted in The Baltimore Sun (“Advocates for Children and Youth,” June 9, 2002, p. 13E).

Eric Mogilnicki was noted in the Legal Times as one of the lawyers representing the District of Columbia in the District’s suit against 25 firearms manufacturers and dealers (“D.C. Judge Holds Fire,” May 20, 2002, p. 1).

Randy Moss and Boyden Gray were quoted in the Legal Times about judicial nominee Miguel Estrada (“Privilege Fight Looms Over Estrada,” June 3, 2002, p. 1).

John Payton was quoted in the Legal Times about the appeals court victory in the University of Michigan Law School case (“School Passes Big Test,” May 20, 2002, p. 13), and also in the Legal Times about D.C. Court of Appeals Chief Judge Annice Wagner (“Chief Judge: Four More Years,” June 3, 2002, p. 1).

John Ratliff was quoted in The Wall Street Journal online about the European Union’s crack down on cartels (“EU Targets Akzo, TotalFinaElf, Clariant In Cartel Probe,” June 5, 2002).

Steve Sachs was quoted in The Baltimore Sun about Maryland U.S. Attorney Thomas M. DiBiagio (“U.S. Attorney Defends City Crime Record,” June 5, 2002, p. 1B).

Kurt Schmoke was quoted in The Baltimore Sun about the redistricting process in Maryland (“Ruling Imperils Election Schedule,” June 13, 2002).

Peter Vigeland was noted in The Wall Street Journal as a lawyer for Credit Suisse First Boston in its lawsuit against several insurers (“Firms Says Chubb, Other Insurers Should Pay Portion of Penalties From Settlement of IPO Charges,” June 3, 2002, p. C1), and also in Best’s Insurance News (“Chubb Unit, Credit Suisse Lock Horns Over E&O Claim,” June 4, 2002).

Seth Waxman was noted in the Legal Times for receiving the 2002 Rex Lee Advocacy Award from the J. Reuben Clark Law Society (“Honors and Appointments,” June 10, 2002, p. 19). Seth was noted in The New York Times (“Manhattan: Conviction Appealed In Sotheby’s Case,” May 22, 2002, online) and the Detroit Free Press (“Taubman to Fight Auction Verdict; He Gets Former Solicitor General to Handle Case,” May 22, 2002) for his representation of A. Alfred Taubman, the former chairman of Sotheby’s. Seth was mentioned in a Washington Times op-ed about campaign-finance reform (“A Gag on the 1st Amendment,” June 3, 2002, p. A17), and in a San Diego Union-Tribune op-ed about the right to keep and bear arms (“Debating the Second Amendment,” May 19, 2002, p. G1).

Harry Weiss was noted in the American Banker as serving on the board of directors of Regulatory DataCorp International (“In Focus: Goldman, Other Firms Joining In Launder Database Venture,” June 3, 2002, p. 4).

Bill Wilkins was quoted in the Financial Times about supporting organizations (“New Way of Supporting the Charitable Urge,” May 16, 2002, p. P24). Bill was noted in CongressDaily concerning WCP’s representation of Tyco on the Baucus-Grassley bill (“Outside Influences: Bermuda Tax Wrangle,” June 12, 2002).

Roger Witten was quoted in Television Digest about the recently enacted Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act (“Ad Limits Questioned,” June 3, 2002).

The $505 million verdict in IGEN International Inc. v. Roche Diagnostics, in which WCP represented IGEN, is the largest verdict of the year thus far, as reported in The National Law Journal (“Top 10 Verdicts,” June 10, 2002, p. B9).

WCP’s representation of IGEN was noted in a Washington Post article about the company (“No Perfect Partnership,” June 3, 2002, p. E1).

WCP’s role as debtor counsel to PSINet Inc. was noted in The Daily Deal (“Bankruptcy Calendar - June 2002,” May 31, 2002, online).

WCP was noted in several publications concerning the firm’s report on behalf of the special committee of Enron’s board, including: the Legal Times (“Inadmissible,” May 27, 2002, p. 3); the New York Law Journal (“News in Brief,” May 28, 2002, p. 1); The Wall Street Journal (“Limited Partners: Lawyers for Enron Faulted Its Deals, Didn’t Force Issue,” May 22, 2002, p. A1); and law.com (“Anderson Prosecutors Shore Up Case with Documents, Investigator Testimony,” May 28, 2002, online).

WCP’s representation of Datum Inc. was noted in The Daily Deal (“Symmetricom, Datum In Sync,” May 23, 2002, online).

WCP was noted as representing Deutsche Bank in an American Lawyer article about the Hewlett-Packard/Compaq merger trial (“A Bet-The-Firm Case,” June 2002, p. 55).

WCP was noted in a New York Times article about the demand for office space in the District of Columbia (“At Least in One Respect, Washington

Is a Stable Place to Do Business," June 5, 2002, p. C6). WCP's new office space in New York was noted in the New York Law Journal ("Real Estate Marketplace," June 5, 2002, p. 5).

WCP was noted in Communications Daily ("Mass Media," May 30, 2002), Audio Week ("Audio Notes," June 3, 2002), Television Digest ("Notebook," June 3, 2002), and Warren's Cable Regulation Monitor ("Technology," June 3, 2002) as assessing patent claims for CableLabs.

SPEECHES, PANELS & PRESENTATIONS

Susan Crawford gave a presentation on "Current Developments in Privacy and Security" at the PricewaterhouseCoopers' General Counsel Forum, and also one at the Aspen Institute on "Legal Issues and the Web," both on June 6, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

Meredith Cross spoke at the "SEC Issues Update 2002" conference on May 21, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

Lloyd Cutler spoke at a Brookings/Harvard forum on "Press Coverage and the War on Terrorism: The Loyal Opposition," on May 29, 2002, at the Brookings Institution.

Boyden Gray will speak at a conference hosted by the American Council for Renewable Energy on July 10-11, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

Bill Lake and Tom Olson spoke at the Practising Law Institute's "Telecommunications Convergence" conference in New York on May 1, 2002. Bill also spoke at "Telecommunications Law 2002: The Legal and Regulatory Dynamics," a program sponsored by the Telecommunications Law Committee of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, on May 22, 2002, in New York.

On May 14, 2002, Andy Lorentz gave an address in German to companies from the Berlin-Brandenburg region who will be attending BIO2002, the global biotech trade show to be held in Toronto, Canada, in June 2002. The talk was part of a seminar organized by the chamber of commerce and concerned the legal issues a German technology company should consider in establishing a presence in the U.S.

On June 3, 2002, Jim Lowe participated on the panel of the FTC Merger Investigation Best Practices session on Electronic Records.

David Medine spoke at Thomson Media's "14th Annual Card Forum & Expo" on June 2-4, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

Andy Vollmer participated in a workshop sponsored by the District of Columbia Bar Association on "Litigating Across Borders: Hot Topics and Recent Developments in Transnational Litigation," held on May 22, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

Seth Waxman was the keynote speaker at an event sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Hartford's Cardozo Society on May 15, 2002, in Hartford, Connecticut.

Roger Witten participated in a panel discussion on "Campaign Finance Reform and the First Amendment," sponsored by the Media Institute (Cornerstone Luncheon Series) on May 28, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

WCP will host a legal briefing on "Business Tax Changes on the Horizon" on July 10, 2002, in Tysons Corner, Virginia. Featured speakers will be Jon Talisman, Rob Leonard (both partners, Capitol Tax Partners), Bill Wilkins, and Bob Stack.

WCP hosted a legal briefing on "Structuring Effective Strategic Alliances and Dealing with Those That Fail" on June 12, 2002, in Tysons Corner, Virginia. Featured speakers were John Clarke (Senior Vice President of Business Operations, Aether Systems, Inc.), Mike Kennedy (Director of Corporate Development, NeuStar, Inc.), and Greg Ewald.

BOOKS, ARTICLES & OTHER WRITINGS

Sheila Cheston, Lee Greenfield, and Nicole Telecki wrote an article entitled "Understanding CFIUS," published in Global Counsel (May 2002).

Peter Grundberg contributed a chapter, "Breach of Confidence and Privacy," in a recently published book in the UK by Tom Crone entitled Law and the Media.

David Medine wrote an article entitled "When Did the FTC Become a Privacy Cop?," published in the May/June 2002 edition of ABA Bank Compliance.

Duane Morse wrote an article entitled "Bankruptcy: Why Some CEOs May Not See It Coming," published in the June 7, 2002 edition of the Washington Business Journal (p. 36).

WCP's Antitrust Group issued a bulletin on June 10, 2002, entitled "European Court Annuls Airtours/First Choice Merger Prohibition."

In May 2002, WCP's Brussels Office issued a status report concerning "Aviation in the European Union." The report covered such topics as Slot Allocation, Passenger Rights, Noise Levels, Satellite-Based Navigation System, Aid to Airlines Following Terrorist Attacks, and Air France/Alitalia Agreements.

WCP's Competition Group issued a bulletin on June 12, 2002, entitled "US Court Broadens Access to US-located Information For Use in EC Antitrust Investigations."

WCP's Corporate Group issued a newsletter on June 10, 2002, entitled "Strategic Alliances and Joint Ventures: People, Property and Platforms."

WCP's Corporate and Securities Groups issued a newsletter on June 5, 2002, entitled "SEC Proposes Enhanced MD&A Disclosure About Financial Statement Estimates and Accounting Policies."

WCP's Financial Institutions Group recently published three newsletters: "Treasury Issues Proposed 'Special Due Diligence' Rule for Correspondent and Private Banking Accounts" (June 11, 2002), "Treasury Issues Regulations on Anti-Money Laundering Programs" (May 22, 2002), and "New OCC Electronic Banking Rule" (May 17, 2002).

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION, OR ANY WCP MARKETING INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT SUSAN WADDINGTON IN THE PRACTICE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT BY EMAIL AT SWADDINGTON@WILMER.COM