

HONORS &amp; APPOINTMENTS

Dick Cass was re-elected to the Board of Directors of IGEN International, Inc.

PRESS PIECES &amp; OTHER PUBLICITY

Maya Alexandri was interviewed on several television and radio programs concerning intellectual property issues on the Internet, including: the "Ed Clancy Show" on CBS affiliate WSMB (New Orleans, September 6, 2002); KXAM (Arizona, September 9, 2002); "Issues Today with Bob Gorley," a syndicated talk show broadcast nationally in 130 markets (September 12, 2002); WIBA-AM (Madison, Wisconsin) and WORC-AM (Worcester, Massachusetts), both on September 28, 2002.

Ambassador Charlene Barshefsky was quoted in The New York Times about American anti-dumping provisions ("Why Isn't Fast Track ... Faster?," August 18, 2002), and in The Globe and Mail about the Byrd amendment ("U.S. Told to End Payment of Duties to Firms," September 4, 2002, p. B3).

Charlene also was noted in the Financial Times about the relationship between Pascal Lamy and Robert Zoellick ("Observer - Keeping Cool," September 4, 2002), and was quoted in BusinessWeek about trade with Cuba ("Can U.S. Farmers Break Open Trade with Cuba?," September 23, 2002, p. 53).

Brandon Becker was quoted in Traders Magazine about the possibility of a global stock exchange ("The Coming Global Stock Market," August 1, 2002).

Gary Born was quoted about international arbitration work in the ABA Journal ("Small World, Big Business," September 1, 2002, p. 28).

David Capps' arrival was noted in the Financial Times ("People," September 10, 2002); Legal Week ("Capps Quits DLA for Wilmer Cutler," September 5, 2002); and The Lawyer ("DLA UK Department Head Defects to Wilmer," September 2, 2002), where Simon Firth and James Greig also were mentioned.

Peggy Clarke and Gary Horlick were noted as new WCP arrivals in several publications, including: Legal Times ("Inadmissible," September 23, 2002, p. 3 and "On the Move," September 30, 2002, p. 19); National Journal ("People," September 21, 2002, p. 2742), where Bill Perlstein was quoted; The Daily Deal (September 19, 2002, p. 18); Legal Media Group ("O'Melveny Departures Boost Wilmer's Global Trade Practice," September 21, 2002, online); and global-competition.com ("Wilmer Poaches Two

From O'Melveny," September 24, 2002, online), where Claus-Dieter Ehlermann was quoted.

Lou Cohen, Chuck Davidow and Paul Engelmayer were noted in several publications concerning their victory in DeKwiatkowski v. Bear Stearns & Co., Inc., including: New York Law Journal ("Decision of the Day," October 2, 2002); Legal Media Group ("Bank Cleared of Liability for Client-Managed Accounts," October 6, 2002, online), where Lou was quoted; and Securities Law Daily ("2d Circuit Reverses $164M Judgment Against Bear, Stearns in Currency Case," September 24, 2002, online).

Susan Crawford was quoted in Communications Daily about numbering technology ("ENUM Raises Privacy Concerns Whose Solutions Are Unclear," August 16, 2002).

Lloyd Cutler was mentioned in a New York Times editorial concerning the findings of the Baker-Cutler study about the security of Russia's nuclear materials ("Editorial - Safeguards for Nuclear Fuel," August 24, 2002, p. A24), and was quoted in The Washington Post about judicial review of the government's actions ("Debate Crystallizes on War, Rights; Courts Struggle Over Fighting Terror vs. Defending Liberties," September 2, 2002, p. A1). Lloyd was noted as co-chairing the Continuity of Government Commission with former Wyoming Senator Alan K. Simpson in several publications, including: The Washington Post ("Panel: Congress Needs Continuity Plan," September 20, 2002, p. A27); Roll Call ("Commission to Address Government Continuity," September 23, 2002); USA Today ("Congress Slow to Plan for Disaster," September 23, 2002, p. A13); and The Washington Times ("Inside the Beltway," September 16, 2002, p. A6).

Dave Donovan was quoted in The Prince George's Sentinel about WCP's successful representation of the Washington Suburban Press Network ("Judge Tosses Antitrust Suit Against Post," August 20, 2002). This case also was covered in The Washington Post ("Suit Against Post Dismissed," August 26, 2002, p. E2).

Boyden Gray was noted in the Legal Times ("Inadmissible," August 19, 2002, p. 4) and the New York Law Journal ("ABA Urges Quick Action Taken on Federal Judges," August 14, 2002, p. 1) concerning the unanimous vote of the American Bar Association's House of Delegates to urge the President and the Senate to move "promptly" to name and confirm federal judges. Boyden, who advises Wine and Spirits Wholesalers of America Inc., was quoted in The Washington Post about the sale of alcohol over the Internet ("Stopped at the State Line," October 8, 2002, p. E1).

WCP
IN THE NEWS

PLEASE SEND INFORMATION ON PROFESSIONAL
ACTIVITIES
TO
CONE JORDAN IN PRACTICE
DEVELOPMENT, FOR FUTURE ISSUES OF
WCP - IN THE NEWS.

He was quoted in The New York Times about the office of White House counsel (“White House Lawyers Have Had More Prominent Role Since September 11,” September 23, 2002, p. A18).

Boyden also appeared on the “News Hour with Jim Lehrer” on September 26, 2002, to discuss the judicial nomination of Miguel Estrada.

James Greig’s arrival was noted in the Financial Adviser (U.K.) (“Moving On,” August 15, 2002).

John Janecek’s arrival was noted in The National Law Journal (“Movers,” September 30, 2002, p. A7).

Jody Manier Kris’ arrival was noted in the Legal Times (“On the Move,” September 16, 2002, p. 40), and The Daily Deal (“Movers and Shakers,” September 17, 2002, p. 18).

Dieter Lange was quoted in The New York Times about the certification of financial statements by European companies (“Porsche Is Balking at U.S. Auditing Rule,” August 21, 2002, p. W1).

Lewis Liman was noted in The Wall Street Journal as leading the lawyers for Salomon Smith Barney in connection with the New York State Attorney General’s investigation into the activities of Citigroup’s securities unit (“Citigroup Proposes Pact Splitting Research and Investment Banking,” September 27, 2002, p. A1).

Chris Lipsett, Dan Squire and Michael Leffel were noted in The National Law Journal as attorneys for the defense in Mattox v. Decision One Mortgage Co. (“Rulings,” October 7, 2002, p. B5).

Bob McCaw was noted in The Wall Street Journal as advising CSFB in an IPO suit (“Giant IPO Suit Hinges on Defense Motion,” September 30, 2002, p. C3).

Bill McLucas was noted for his role in the investigation of accounting irregularities at WorldCom on behalf of a special committee of the company’s board in the New York Post (“E-Mail Blackmail - WorldCom Memo Threatened Conscience-Stricken Exec,” August 27, 2002, p. 27), and International Bar News (“Bad News for WorldCom is Good News for Lawyers,” August 2002, p. 6). Bill also was noted in the Legal Times concerning Tyco’s legal problems (“What Happened to Mark Belnick?,” September 16, 2002, p. 1).

David Medine was quoted in the American Banker about the recent district court decision concerning TransUnion’s sale of target marketing lists (“Ruling May Reduce Threat of Privacy Penalties,” October 8, 2002, p. 7), and in The New York Times about “stealth software” (“New Software Quietly Diverts Sales Commissions,” September 27, 2002, p. C1).

Doug Melamed was quoted in the Legal Times about the current level of activity at the U.S. Justice Department’s Antitrust Division (“Antitrust: Less Work, Fewer Thrills,” October 7, 2002, p. 1). Doug and Lee Greenfield were noted in the National Post as providing U.S. antitrust and European competition counsel to Bayer (“Bayer Purchases Aventis Global Crop Science Business for US $7.5B,” September 12, 2002).

Eric Mogilnicki was quoted in Roll Call about the legal strategy of the National Voting Rights Institute, a group challenging the new campaign finance law (“CFR Suit Stalled,” September 5, 2002).

John Payton was interviewed on the CBS Evening News about the “Realities of Reverse Racism” on September 2, 2002.

Bill Perlstein was quoted in an American Lawyer article (“Lessons From 10 Firms,” October 2002, p. 99) concerning the magazine’s annual survey of law firm associates, in which WCP received top ranking with regard to pro bono work. Bill also was quoted and pictured in a related article in the Legal Times (“Knowing What Associates Want,” October 7, 2002, p. 19).

Steve Sachs was quoted in The Baltimore Sun about the Maryland U.S. Attorney’s Office (“Going After the Politicians,” August 18, 2002, p. 1F).

Kurt Schmoke was quoted in The Boston Globe about Massachusetts gubernatorial candidate Thomas F. Birmingham (“Renaissance Man, Politician: Birmingham Is Driven,” August 18, 2002, p. A1).

Chuck Stark was quoted in a Reuters newswire report concerning the International Competition Network (“Nations Gather to Untangle Antitrust Legal Web,” September 27, 2002, online).

Seth Waxman was noted in numerous articles about this fall’s Supreme Court docket, including: The American Lawyer (“Building a Better Advocate,” October 2002, p. 73); Legal Times (“October 2002 Docket Watch,” October 7, 2002, p. 12); and Corporate Counsel (“Coming Attractions,” October 2002, p. 96). Seth was quoted in The Washington Post about the retirement of Francis J. Lorson, former Chief Deputy Clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court (“Anxious Lawyers Came to Treasure Retiring Clerk,” September 2, 2002, p. A21), and was noted in the Legal Times as the lawyer for the appellee in Monsanto Co. v. McFarling (“Case Digests,” September 16, 2002, p. 42). Seth also was noted in many publications concerning his support of judicial nominee Miguel Estrada, including: The Washington Post (“Nominee for Court Faces Two Battles,” September 24, 2002, p. A1); The New York Times (“Battle Brews Over a Hispanic Nominee to Appeals Court,” September 24, 2002, p. A21); and The Wall Street Journal (“One Helluva Bender,” September 26, 2002, p. A16).

Roger Yoerges, Pat Carome, Joe Profaizer and Darrin Hostetler were noted in the New York Law Journal as lawyers for Netscape in Specht v. Netscape Communications Corp. (“Internet Users Not Bound by Hidden License Agreements,” October 2, 2002, and “Decision of the Day,” October 3, 2002).

Joyce Cutlip was quoted in The Washington Post online about WCP’s use of videoconferencing (“Screening Clients,” September 3, 2002).

Ed Macnamara was quoted about technology spending in the Technology Supplement of The American Lawyer ("Living with Austerity," September 2002).

WCP was noted in the Legal Times as providing outside counsel to Sallie Mae for mergers and acquisitions ("On the Record," August 19, 2002, p. 16).

WCP was noted in the National Journal as a member of the team defending the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act ("A Legal Champion for Campaign Reform," October 5, 2002).

In the Washington Business Journal's recent survey of the largest law firms in the metro area, WCP came in at No. 3 (September 6-12, 2002, p. 60).

Legal Media Group quoted from WCP's recent newsletter about "New Requirements for Prompt Reporting of Insider Stock Transactions" in a recent article entitled "SEC Approves Sarbanes-Oxley to Accelerate Filings" (August 31, 2002, online).

WCP was noted as counsel for CCBN in the Wall Street Letter ("CCBN Fires Out Missive on Thomson Lawsuit," August 5, 2002, p. 3).

The Miami Herald noted that WCP was hired by a special committee of FPL Group's board of directors to conduct an investigation into executive bonuses ("FPL Bonuses Too Big," September 28, 2002, p. 1).

SPEECHES, PANELS & PRESENTATIONS

Ambassador Charlene Barshefsky spoke about "Doha Development Agenda: What's in it for the U.S.? Lessons Learned from Past Negotiation" at TradeProExpo 2002 on October 9, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

Lloyd Cutler was part of a panel discussion about the Continuity of Government Commission's role to ensure the continuity of U.S. government institutions after a catastrophic attack, sponsored by the American Enterprise Institute and the Brookings Institution on September 19, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

Claus-Dieter Ehlermann spoke about the "Appellate Body of the WTO" at the Texas Journal of International Law Symposium in Houston, Texas, on September 5-6, 2002. He co-chaired the European University Institute Conference on "WTO Negotiators Meet Academics — Improvements and Clarifications of the Dispute Settlement Understanding" in Florence, Italy, on September 13-14, 2002, and also co-chaired the IBA Competition Law Conference in Florence, Italy, on September 20, 2002.

Boyden Gray participated in an FTC workshop concerning how state regulations and private business practices may have anticompetitive effects on E-commerce in certain industry segments, including wine, on October 8-10, 2002, in Washington, D.C. He also took part in the Cato Institute's symposium on "The Supreme Court: Past and Prologue," held September 17, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

Andrew Kaizer spoke at a seminar for securities practitioners about "Making Sense of Sarbanes-Oxley" on September 9, 2002, in New York, and also at the "Hot Topics in SEC Enforcement" conference, sponsored by the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, on October 11, 2002, in New York.

Eric Mahr will speak at a seminar concerning "Lobbying and Decision-making in Europe," on October 17-18, 2002, in Brussels.

John Payton spoke at a lunch sponsored by the Washington Council of Lawyers about "Will Bakke Survive? The University of Michigan Case" on September 25, 2002, in Washington, D.C.

John Pickering was the featured speaker at the first in a series of "Fireside Chats," informal conversations with distinguished members of the D.C. Bar, sponsored by the D.C. Bar Foundation and the D.C. Consortium of Legal Service Providers, held at WCP on October 9, 2002.

John Ratliff spoke about "EC Cartel Law" at the IBA Competition Law Conference in Florence, Italy, on September 20, 2002.

Kurt Schmoke shared his views on death penalty reform at a forum sponsored by the Baltimore County League of Women Voters on September 30, 2002, in Baltimore.

Chuck Stark served as the U.S. Private Sector Advisor to the Merger Notification and Procedures Working Group at the First Annual International Competition Network Conference, held September 27-29, 2002, in Naples, Italy.

Sven Voelcker will speak about "Recent Developments in EU Merger Control" at the Latest Developments in EU and U.S. Competition Law Conference in Brussels on October 17, 2002.

Yves van Gerven, Anne Vallery and Axel Desmedt participated in a closed workshop with European Commission officials and economic experts concerning the economics of antitrust in the telecommunications sector on September 16, 2002, in Brussels.

Paul von Hehn was chairman of the GPRS Roaming Seminar in Paris on October 2, 2002, and spoke about "Rethinking International Roaming — How to Unlock the Roaming Potential."

Seth Waxman spoke to the American Jewish Congress Lawyers' Committee about the upcoming Supreme Court calendar on August 28, 2002, in Washington, D.C. On September 12, 2002, in Wyoming, Seth spoke at Lockheed Martin's biennial general counsel's conference concerning Supreme Court litigation. Seth also spoke at Brigham Young University's Rex E. Lee symposium on the role of the solicitor general on September 13, 2002, in Utah.

WCP recently hosted two legal briefings in Tysons Corner, Virginia: "Raising Capital in Troubled Times" on September 18, 2002 (featured speakers were Duane Morse, Stephen Bernardo and Charles Reardon) and "Hot Issues in Antitrust: Enforcement, Counseling, and Sarbanes-Oxley" on October 10, 2002 (featured speakers were Jim Lowe and Robert S. Lavet).

BOOKS, ARTICLES & OTHER WRITINGS

Maya Alexandri wrote an article entitled "Three Misconceptions About Fair Use," published in Virginia Lawyers Weekly (September 23, 2002).

Claus-Dieter Ehlermann's letter to the editor of the Financial Times about merger control rules was published in the August 23, 2002 edition ("Letters to the Editor - Merger Rules Do Not Permit Intervention").

Simon Firth wrote an article entitled "Hedge Funds to Retail: Can It Be Done?," published in Eurofunds News (September 2002, p. 17).

James Greig wrote an article entitled "Potential Impact: The Potential Impact of the New U.S. Corporate Reform Law on Companies Whose Shares Trade in the UK Securities Markets," recently published in Corporate Finance's Corporate Governance Guide 2002 (p. 24).

Lewis Liman reviewed the book "Constitutional Self-Government" for the New York Law Journal ("The Lawyer's Bookshelf," August 9, 2002, p. 2).

Eric Mahr and Ylenia Ariano co-authored an article entitled "European Court Annuls Airtours/First Choice Merger Prohibition," published in International Business Lawyer (June 2002).

John Payton wrote an op-ed, published in The Washington Post, about the government's claim of unreviewable power in its designation of enemy combatants ("The Rule of Law," August 25, 2002, p. B7).

John Pickering wrote an article about civil justice reform, published in the New Jersey Lawyer ("Reforming the Civil Justice System," August 12, 2002, p. 7).

Victoria Schonfeld and Stephen Brown wrote an article entitled "Private Investment Funds - United States Regulatory Update," published in the September 2002 issue of the Alternative Investment Management Association Newsletter.

Tom White wrote an article entitled "New U.S. Corporate Reform Law: Impact of the New U.S. Corporate Reform Law on Companies Whose Shares Trade in the U.S. Securities Markets," recently published in Corporate Finance's Corporate Governance Guide 2002 (p. 26).

In August and September 2002, WCP's Brussels Office issued status reports concerning "Aviation in the European Union." The reports covered such topics as Airline Insurance, Mutual Funds, the Galileo Program, Civil Aviation Security Measures, Airline Agreements, and Airline Accident Investigations.

WCP's Corporate and Securities Groups issued three newsletters recently: "New Requirements for Prompt Reporting of Insider Stock Transactions" (August 28, 2002); "Certification of Disclosure in Quarterly and Annual Reports" (September 12, 2002); and "New Requirements for Accelerated Reporting of Periodic Filings" (September 17, 2002).

WCP's EC Competition Group issued two bulletins recently: "Impact of Sarbanes-Oxley Act on Non-U.S. Companies Whose Shares Are Traded in the United States Markets" (August 16, 2002) and "Implications of U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act in the Antitrust Field for European Companies" (August 20, 2002).

WCP's EU Financial Services Group issued a briefing on "Hedge Funds: FSA Discussion Paper and the Short Selling Debate" (October 1, 2002).

WCP's EU/WTO Group issued a bulletin entitled "European Court Says Environmental Criteria Can Be Taken Into Account in Awarding Public Procurement Contracts: Implications for EU and WTO Law" (September 17, 2002).

The newsletter issued by WCP's Financial Institutions Group on August 9, 2002, entitled "U.S. Treasury Issues Proposed 'Customer Identification' Rules for Patriot Act Section 326 and an Interim Final 'Special Due Diligence' Rule for Patriot Act Section 312" was published in The Compliance Digest (July 2002, p. 35).

WCP's IADA Group issued an International Aviation, Defense and Aerospace Alert entitled "Disclosure of Contract Prices: A Mixed Message" (October 9, 2002).

WCP's Securities Group issued an Investment Company and Investment Advisers Act Developments newsletter concerning "New Rules for Registered Investment Companies Under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002" (September 9, 2002).

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION, OR ANY WCP MARKETING INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT CONI JORDAN IN THE PRACTICE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT BY EMAIL AT CJORDAN@WILMER.COM