

WCP
IN THE NEWS

PLEASE SEND INFORMATION ON PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES
TO BRENDA HUNT IN PRACTICE
DEVELOPMENT, FOR FUTURE ISSUES OF WCP - IN THE NEWS.

PRESS PIECES & OTHER PUBLICITY

Gary Born was prominently featured as “a major arbitration player in Europe” in an American Lawyer article about the increased presence of American lawyers in the field of international arbitration. (“The Court That Came in From the Cold,” May 2001, p. 98.) The May 15 issue of the Daily Deal carried a recap of the American Lawyer article, with Gary pictured on the front page (“The Arbitration Invasion,” p. 1).

Sheila Cheston was quoted in an article in connection with the firm’s representation of DHL Worldwide Express Network in protecting its special freight-forwarders license granted by the Department of Transportation last year (“Who’s Getting the Work.,” Influence Online, May 2, 2001, online).

Natalie Luebben was interviewed by Swiss Television (SF DRS) for the television news magazine 10 vor 10 on May 2, 2001, in connection with the provisional agreement between the Swiss and German governments on approaches to Zurich Airport across German territory. Natalie also attended the Swiss politics television talk show Arena (on SF DRS) on April 27, 2001, with Mr. Leuenberger, the Swiss President and Minister of Transport, as an aviation law expert in connection with the Zurich Airport matter.

Doug Melamed and Randy Moss’ return to WCP was noted in Legal Times’ “Inadmissible” column (April 30, 2001, p. 4). Doug’s return also was noted in a brief article in Mergers & Acquisitions Report (“Former DOJ Antitrust Head Returns to Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering,” May 7, 2001, page number unavailable).

Returning partner, Doug Melamed was interviewed in a Legal Media Group article regarding his time in government and his views on the increasing role of intellectual property law in the field of competition. (“Doug Melamed: Why the FTC Needs IP Specialists,” May 4, 2001, online.)

Randy Moss and Charles Toy’s arrival at WCP was noted in the Washington Business Journal (“Wilmer Cutler Hires Two Clinton Appointees,” May 7, 2001, page number unavailable).

Chuck Stark was quoted in a Reuters report on General Electric’s pursuit of EU approval for its proposed purchase of Honeywell. (“GE Turns Its Attention to Brussels,” May 3, 2001, online.)

WCP was one of 17 firms included in “A Slightly Arbitrary List of the Arbitration Elite,” that appeared in the American Lawyer (May 2001, p. 118).

WCP was named one of the “Top Lobbying Companies” in Fortune’s list of “The Power 25” (May 2001, online).

SPEECHES, PANELS & PRESENTATIONS

On May 7, 2001, WCP’s Berlin office hosted the sixth annual Crossroads of International Business and Trade Law Conference at Humboldt University in Berlin. The conference focused on legal structures and strategies for business in the global marketplace. Italian Prime Minister Giuliano Amato opened the conference and gave a key-note address entitled “Europe Needs Europeans.”

On May 8, 2001, WCP’s Berlin office co-hosted a Round Table Discussion entitled “The First 100 Days of President George W. Bush,” with Lloyd Cutler and Boyden Gray, which was extensively covered in the well-known national daily newspaper Die Welt.

BOOKS, ARTICLES & OTHER WRITINGS

WCP’s Brussels Office published the April 2001 issue of WCP Status Report: Aviation in the European Union, covering the topics of compensation for passengers, joint planning and coordination of schedules, airline accident investigations, air safety agency, satellite navigation system, and ground handling services.