WCP IS LEADING CONTRIBUTOR IN LEGAL AID SOCIETY'S GENEROUS ASSOCIATES CAMPAIGN

Washington, D.C., July 15, 2003 -- As part of the annual effort to raise money for a crucial organization that provides legal services for the poorest members of the community, WCP lawyers raised a staggering 10 percent of Legal Aid's citywide total of $358,336 and finished this year's Legal Aid Society Generous Associates Campaign in first place.

The firm had a terrific Campaign last year, raising $18,662 and finishing in third place citywide. This year, WCP had a phenomenal Campaign, nearly doubling last year's contributions. And while 120 associates and summer associates contributed last year, this year, 143 donated, spurred on by partners who made matching challenges.

Here are the final standings:

The 2003 Associates Campaign of The Legal Aid Society of the District of Columbia
