
Global Anti-Bribery Year-in-Review: 2014 Developments and Predictions for 2015

2. FEBRUAR 2015

The year 2014 witnessed several notable developments in the enforcement of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA). In Global Anti-Bribery Year-in-Review: 2014 Developments and Predictions for 2015, WilmerHale Partners Kimberly A. Parker, Jay Holtmeier and Erin G.H. Sloane discuss notable trends and developments in 2014 corporate settlements and individual prosecutions, key FCPA legal and investigation-related developments, notable collateral litigation developments, and significant developments in international anti-corruption law. They also look ahead to possible trends in 2015.