

A Heritage of Excellence and Service
Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr®

Since the earliest days of our two legacy firms, WilmerHale has played a leading role in historic events and landmark cases that have shaped the nation and left their mark across the globe. In matters ranging from the Army-McCarthy hearings to the legal defense of civil rights, from the 9/11 Commission to the restoration of the rule of law in apartheid-torn South Africa, our lawyers have been privileged to make contributions that have profoundly affected our society and our profession.

Our interactive history timeline below showcases selected milestones—both great and small—that chart the evolution of our firm.

A HERITAGE OF EXCELLENCE IN SERVICE

Since the earliest days of our two predecessor firms, we have played a leading role in historic events and shaped the nation and left their mark across the globe. From the Army-McCarthy hearings to the Iran-Contra case, from the 9/11 Commission to the restoration of democracy in South Africa, our lawyers have been privileged to be part of events that have profoundly affected our society and the world.
