

Arbitrating Under the 2014 LCIA Rules – A User’s Guide Now Available

APRIL 22, 2015

We are delighted to announce the release of Arbitrating Under the 2014 LCIA Rules – A User’s Guide (2015 Wolters Kluwer Law and Business), co-authored by Dr. Maxi Scherer, Special Counsel in the International Arbitration Practice Group at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP and Senior Lecturer at Queen Mary University of London, together with Lisa Richman and Remy Gerbay.

By: Maxi Scherer, Lisa Richman, Remy Gerbay

April 2015, 504 pp., Hardcover

ISBN: 9041151605

Price: USD 216.00

This highly practical and user-friendly guide offers a thorough analysis of the 2014 LCIA Rules. It provides a comprehensive explanation of the basic principles governing LCIA arbitration, while at the same time offering an in-depth analysis of complex issues that may arise in the course of LCIA proceedings.

Setting this book apart is the unique combination of the backgrounds of the authors, who bring together a diverse and complementary outlook on LCIA arbitration and combine academic and practical perspectives, common law and civil law training and practice, and vast professional and personal experience as counsel, arbitrator and former LCIA Deputy Registrar.

This book contains abundant references to relevant national court judgments, statutory provisions, up-to-date statistics and bibliographical sources on LCIA arbitration.

It covers important aspects of LCIA practice and procedure, such as:

- Key changes introduced by the 2014 Rules
- Drafting LCIA Arbitration Agreements
- Request for Arbitration and Response
- Formation of the Tribunal and challenges, removal and replacement of arbitrators
- Rules about communication, language and seat of the arbitration
- Standards of counsel and party conduct
- Multi-party arbitration, joinder of third parties and consolidation of proceedings
- Interim relief and Emergency Arbitrators
- Arbitral proceedings and hearings
- Awards and correction of awards
- Costs and deposits
- Confidentiality

This book is invaluable to business executives and corporate counsel, as well as to practitioners and scholars in the field.

Purchase the hardcover edition of the Guide.

Authors

Professor Dr. Maxi Scherer

SPECIAL COUNSEL

✉ maxi.scherer@wilmerhale.com

☎ +44 (0)20 7872 1067