

12th Annual Stanford E-Commerce Best Practices

JUNE 8, 2015

The Stanford E-Commerce Best Practices Conference is the premier educational event for in-house counsel and practitioners in the e-commerce industry. Leading authorities from industry, legal practice and academia will address current issues facing the industry and offer practical solutions for dealing with the many legal uncertainties that arise when doing business online. The program will feature a roundtable of general counsel from leading e-commerce companies.

WilmerHale Partner Reed Freeman will be on the "Best Practices in Ethical Online and Mobile Marketing" panel and Partner Adit Khorana will be on the "Sticky Negotiating Issues in Enterprise Contracts" panel.
