

12th International Berlin Business and Trade Law Conference: Corporate Compliance in a Global Economy

2007-06-21

Senior Vice President and World Bank Group General Counsel, Ana de Palacio, and Key Business Leaders Discuss Compliance Demands in a Global Economy.

WilmerHale, in partnership with Humboldt University of Berlin, will host this year's twelfth International Berlin Business and Trade Law Conference. The focus of this event will be on international legal aspects of compliance, such as the regulatory framework in Germany, the EU and the US, the fight against corruption, practical aspects of enforcement as well as the economics of compliance. The list of speakers once again boasts a wide variety of high-ranking individuals, including Ana de Palacio, Senior Vice President and World Bank Group General Counsel.
