

CBLA Fundamental Series: Intellectual Property

FEBRUARY 5, 2015

CBLA is proud to be hosting the Intellectual Property Panel, another segment of the Corporate Law Fundamentals Series. The Fundamentals Series is designed to introduce law students to career options in various practice areas in corporate law. In this panel, a group of IP attorneys will provide diverse perspectives on their career paths, the nature of intellectual property work, how it compares to other practice areas, and their advice for students interested in pursuing careers in the same field.

WilmerHale Counsel Omar Khan is a featured panelist at this event.
