

King's College and Shearman & Sterling International Arbitration Speaker Series

APRIL 21, 2015

The Shearman & Sterling and King's College London International Arbitration Speakers Series brings together members of the international arbitration community to offer their insights on current topics. Consisting of a number of evening roundtable discussions held throughout the year, each session focuses on key topical issues in international arbitration and is led by a panel of leaders in the field.

WilmerHale Special Counsel Maxi Scherer will present at this event.
