

Shareholder Services Association: 2015 Annual Conference

JULY 14-17, 2015

The Shareholder Services Association (SSA) is a network of issuers, service provider professionals and industry leaders representing the diversity of the shareholder services industry. SSA aids its members in understanding the rapidly changing regulatory and business environments, while helping bring about practical solutions to meet such challenges.

During this conference, attendees will have the opportunity to learn with and from a network of fellow issuers and service providers in an unparalleled learning environment. Also, attendees will have numerous opportunities to network, share ideas and information, as well as have access to limitless guidance and support that will help perform job responsibilities to the utmost.

WilmerHale Partner Lillian Brown will be presenting on the topic "Shareholder Proposals - Key Developments in 2015."
