

Women in ETFs Washington/Baltimore Chapter: ETFs – A Look Behind the Curtain

OCTOBER 29, 2015

WEWashington/Baltimore invites you to a very special panel session which will highlight current ETF trends and issues from the perspective of an economist, lawyer, and brokerage firm research analyst - all who have spent their careers specializing in the asset management industry and its products.

WE will co-host this event with the Georgetown Center for Financial Markets and Policy.

The panelists in the ETFs – A Look Behind the Curtain session will discuss:

- How the ETF analyst role benefits financial advisors and their clients.
- How ICI develops proprietary ETF product research and its impact on investors and industry policy makers.
- The legal aspects within the ETF Industry and how law firms assist ETF managers navigate launches and other legal aspects of product management.

WilmerHale Partner Amy Doberman will participate in this panel.
