

WilmerHale Cybersecurity, Privacy and Communications Webinar Series: Recent Data Security Developments for Government Contractors

NOVEMBER 4, 2015

On Wednesday, November 4, in this installment of our webinar series, attorneys from our Cybersecurity, Privacy and Communications Practice addressed key cybersecurity issues for government contractors.

Cybersecurity threats and regulatory requirements continue to evolve and present government contractors with complex challenges. Speakers Jonathan Cedarbaum, Jason Chipman, Barry Hurewitz, Ben Powell and Leah Schloss addressed:

- the latest trends and challenges relating to cyber threats for government contractors;
- current best practices in preparing for and responding to incidents; and
- the legal landscape, including new regulations and guidance for contractors.
