

Colorado Law Institute: Patent Law Update

JANUARY 25, 2016

With the opening of the US Patent and Trademark Office in Denver on June 30, 2014, the adoption of local rules by the US district Court for Colorado, as well as other developments, the intellectual property landscape in Colorado is changing. On January 25, the Colorado Law Institute is hosting a one-day “Patent Law Update: What IP Practitioners Need to Know in 2016” conference to provide practical information and the latest patent law developments.

WilmerHale Partner Natalie Hanlon Leh will speak on the “Damages in Patent Litigation” panel, which will cover the evolving law, methods and best practices gleaned from several recent court decisions.
