

Association of Corporate Counsel National Capital Region's Government Contractors Forum: Security Clearance and Insider Threat Boot Camp

FEBRUARY 9, 2016

In this half-day boot camp, presented by the Association of Corporate Counsel National Capital Region, panelists will review the key things that every in-house counsel working for a contractor performing work that requires a clearance needs to know. Speakers will provide practical considerations in standing up an insider threat program and confronting the unique privacy, whistleblower and liability issues that can arise when conducting an insider threat or other internal investigation related to classified work.

WilmerHale Partner Ben Powell will present during the session "Investigations, Privacy, Whistleblower and Other Issues Related to Insider Threat Program and Classified Work," where he and panelists will explore best practices for handling investigations and reviews related to an insider threat program and classified work.
