

ICDR Young & International: An Introduction to International Arbitration for Young & International Practitioners

APRIL 8, 2016

You are invited to attend the ICDR Y&I training workshop and cocktail reception co-organized by JMiles & Co and Jones Day and is targeted at young lawyers interested in international arbitration. The training will introduce participants to basic concepts of international arbitration including history of international arbitration, institutional and investment arbitration, and drafting effective arbitration clauses.

WilmerHale Associate Jonathan Lim will speak during a panel session on international arbitration in Africa and practice perspectives about working in international arbitration.
