

10th Latin American Arbitration Conference

APRIL 27-29, 2016

This event, based in Lima, Peru, is ideal for all professionals who are interested in commercial arbitration and investment arbitration stage. The success of past editions has established a conference of great importance, not only because of the wealth of their subjects, but also by bringing together recognized referees, partners of prestigious law firms worldwide, magistrates, lawyers, businessmen and public officials involved in arbitration.

At this event, WilmerHale Partner Gary Born gave the keynote speech, "Recent developments in International Arbitration – what will the future hold," Partner John Pierce participated in a panel titled "The role of experts in arbitration," and Senior Associate Victoria Narancio moderated the panel "Differences between the judicial process and the arbitral process."
