

The 6th Annual Congress on Successfully Negotiating & Renegotiating Long Term Gas Supply Contracts

JUNE 30-JULY 1, 2016

C5's 6th Annual Long Term Gas Supply Contracts Congress is an industry leading event and the only one of its kind which focuses on negotiation and renegotiation of long term oil indexed gas contracts. This event comes at a crucial time in which oil prices are diverging significantly from the market price for gas which in itself triggers gas price review arbitrations in existing oil indexed contracts. Bringing together a senior level audience of leading purchasers, suppliers, consultants and the most-highly regarded lawyers in this area, attendees will benefit from extensive learning and business development opportunities.

WilmerHale Partner John Trenor will speak on the panel "A Deep Dive into Price Formation Evolution and Price Review Clauses."
