

Inside Washington: Key Issues for International Lawyers

SEPTEMBER 22, 2016

This program will focus on the rapidly shifting US regulatory and public policy developments and the impending impact of the presidential and congressional elections. Our panelists will explore how clients both in and outside of the United States might be affected by a future Clinton or Trump Administration, and what to expect on key issues, such as international trade, energy, financial services, tax, the enforcement priorities of US agencies and the extraterritorial application of US laws.
