

WilmerHale Webinar: What to Expect From a Trump Trade Policy

JANUARY 10, 2017

Join WilmerHale for a webinar featuring analysis on the Trump Administration's trade policy.

In less than one month, President-Elect Donald Trump will assume office after campaigning on promises to make major changes to US trade policy. If implemented, these changes will have a major impact on US and foreign companies that compete in the global market—especially those that rely on cross-border supply chains. During the program, Ambassador Charlene Barshefsky, Senior Public Policy Advisor Rob Lehman and Counsel David Ross will discuss President-Elect Trump's trade platform, including the following:

- free trade agreements, including the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) and the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP);
- China and currency manipulation; and
- border adjustability and related World Trade Organization (WTO) legal issues.

Participants will have the opportunity to contribute questions online and interact with panelists throughout the webinar.
