

Stanford Graduate School of Business: Social Entrepreneurship Bootcamp

FEBRUARY 1, 2017

Packed with inspiring and insightful leaders, this bootcamp promises a fast-paced, high-energy learning experience that will connect you with like-minds and strengthen your capacity to create measurable impact in the world as a social entrepreneur. You'll spend the day learning from industry leaders and practitioners on fundamental aspects of early-stage social venture design, with opportunities to collaborate with your venture team and others.

Early-stage social entrepreneurs and those exploring entrepreneurship are especially welcome to attend, with sessions of value for all stages. Teams are encouraged to attend together.

WilmerHale Partner Daniel Zimmermann will present on the topic "Legal Structures for Social Ventures."
