

D&N Distinguished Speakers Seminar: US Antitrust Policy - What the Trump Administration Means for Antitrust Enforcement and Its Impact on ASEAN

MARCH 3, 2017

Drew & Napier is pleased to welcome WilmerHale Partner Hartmut Schneider as the invited distinguished speaker for this seminar.

The seminar will discuss:

- the extraterritorial reach of the Sherman Act;
- what a Trump antitrust agenda could look like (and whether it is likely):
 - expected impact on merger enforcement, civil and criminal investigations, and the IP/Antitrust intersection, among others;
 - the latest transition developments at the antitrust agencies;
 - how international and US state competition enforcers could react to changing federal antitrust priorities and US trade policy; and
 - changes in the federal judiciary and the effects on private actions;
- developments in antitrust regulation vis-à-vis technology/IP in the US; and
- US agencies' approach to high-tech mergers and related innovation.
