

4th Annual Cambridge Arbitration Day

MARCH 17-18, 2017

The 4th annual Cambridge Arbitration Day, organized by the Cambridge University Graduate Law Society, is an endeavour to bring together scholars, practitioners and students for a discussion on recent developments in the field of international arbitration.

WilmerHale Partner Duncan Speller will present on "The Ethics of Counsel in International Arbitration: Is There a Need for Regulation?" during the panel "Commercial Arbitration: Where is it Headed?," and Special Counsel Maxi Scherer will moderate the panel "Debate: Increasing Transparency in Commercial & Investment Arbitration - A Welcome Reform?"
