

Law Seminars International Sixth Annual Advanced Conference on Natural Resource Damages

MARCH 23-24, 2017

One of the results of the 2016 presidential election will be anticipated shifts in federal and state environmental policy that could include changes in the government's and trustees' approaches towards assessment and recovery of natural resource damages. This year's Advanced NRD conference in DC will examine those potential changes and provide critical information so that NRD stakeholders may be better able to adapt.

WilmerHale Partner Ken Salazar and Special Counsel Rachel Jacobson will provide special addresses at this conference, reflecting on the use of NRD litigation as a process for remediating environmental damage.
