

The 11th Latin American Congress on Arbitration

APRIL 26-28, 2017

The Latin American Congress on Arbitration is a key event for all professionals who are interested in commercial arbitration and investment arbitration. Undoubtedly, this has become an important professional event of the South American region, which unites referees, prestigious law firms, magistrates, lawyers, businessmen and public officials, including practitioners of arbitration.

WilmerHale Special Counsel Claudio Salas will speak on the panel "Ethics vs Corruption in Arbitration" along with six other arbitration practitioners from United States, European and Latin American firms.
