

Antitrust, Trade, and Criminal Compliance: Overview & Trends in a Changing World

MAY 23, 2017

In this joint seminar hosted by WilmerHale and FRONTEO, Partners Steven Cherry, Ron Machen and Naboth van den Broek will address antitrust cartel enforcement and civil litigation, international trade, investment and market access, and corporate criminal investigations, including cross-border corruption and accounting fraud. It will prepare foreign companies and practitioners to handle US government investigations under the Trump Administration and implement best practices for corporate compliance. The speakers will also address trade issues under the new US Administration, including the future of the TPP Agreement, bilateral economic and trade relations, and how to be best positioned in the new US political and enforcement landscape.
