

Institute of International Economic Law: Former Deputy Director of the CIA Talks Russia, Venezuela and North Korea Sanctions

SEPTEMBER 11, 2017

David Cohen, the former Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, will discuss Russia, Venezuela and North Korean sanctions in an interview with IIEL Faculty Director Chris Brummer. Described by several members of the Obama administration as a “financial Batman” and one of the president’s “favorite combatant commanders,” Mr. Cohen also served as Under Secretary of the Treasury for Terrorism and Financial Intelligence.

This event, which is co-sponsored by the Atlantic Council, will be open to the media and seating may be extremely limited.
