

Eastern European Dispute Resolution Forum

SEPTEMBER 22, 2017

Eastern European Dispute Resolution Forum (EEDRF) is the first and the largest practical forum, held in Belarus, which unites different jurisdictions.

On September 22, 2017, Minsk is waiting to meet lawyers and major league players, including representatives of international law firms, corporate lawyers, heads of Belarusian and state companies, leaders in the field of litigation and arbitration from the Baltic countries, CIS, Europe and the United States, law students, members of the academic community and the public sector.

The aim of the forum is to discuss the most relevant trends and practices in the sphere of dispute resolution in the CIS and Eastern Europe. The topic of EEDRF 2017 is "Prove it if you can." One of the issues that will be discussed at the forum is whether the alternative is necessary for IBA Rules on taking of evidence.WilmerHale Partner Steven Finizio will speak on a panel session in Section 3: East vs West.
