

2017 NACDL White Collar Summer Series – Defending the Executive Branch: Investigations & Impeachment Proceedings

SEPTEMBER 28, 2017

The panel will discuss how congressional and law enforcement investigations of the executive branch of government present unique issues, including those related to separation of powers, executive privilege, attorney-client privilege, the role of the judiciary and, of course, impeachment. The panel will discuss these issues and others, providing insights on how lawyers for key players in these cases represent their clients effectively.

WilmerHale Partner Reg Brown will be a speaker on the panel.
