

The Clearing House Annual Conference

NOVEMBER 6, 2017

The Clearing House's 2018 Annual Conference, the premier gathering focused on the changing regulatory landscape and the future of payments, brings together senior financial services executives, regulators, policymakers, and academics to address the challenges and opportunities for the industry through a thoughtful and fact-based discussion.

WilmerHale Partner Jonathan Cedarbaum will participate in the panel discussion "Banks and FinTech: Competitors, Partners (or Both) in Innovation and Meeting Customer Demands?;" Partner Reg Brown will speak during the panel discussion "Ethical Obligations of Government Attorneys: What Can the Industry Expect When Dealing With the Government?;" and Partner Sharon Cohen Levin will conduct a Q&A session with keynote speaker Sigal P. Mandelker, Under Secretary for Terrorism and Financial Intelligence, US Department of the Treasury.
