

Practising Law Institute: 49th Annual Securities Regulation Institute

NOVEMBER 8-10, 2017

For more than four decades, PLI's Annual Securities Regulation Institute has been a premier conference on securities regulation and corporate governance for lawyers, from new associates to seasoned practitioners. This year's Institute will once again bring you the nation's leading securities and corporate legal industry leaders to deliver the practical information, insights and real-world strategies and solutions to the many challenges. The Institute's comprehensive and practice-oriented sessions will ensure that you are on top of the latest developments and trends impacting the legal industry.

WilmerHale Partner Meredith Cross will moderate the panel session "Legislative and Regulatory Developments in a New Administration" and Partner Bill McLucas will participate on the panel session "Ethics in the Enforcement Context: Spotting and Solving the Issues."
