

SEC Conference 2017: An Accounting & Reporting Update for Public Companies

DECEMBER 11-12, 2017

The SEC is increasingly targeting financial reporting issues. In the past two years alone, the number of SEC financial reporting cases has more than doubled.

At this conference, you will receive all the information you need relating to these issues—directly from the source. This is the one SEC Conference that provides you with the latest updates and expert guidance from current SEC and PCAOB regulators—including the SEC's Divisions of Enforcement and Corporation Finance—plus Big 4 leaders and other experts. WilmerHale Counsel Justin Goodyear will be a panelist during the discussion "FCPA Enforcement Trends & Focus on Remediation."
