

WilmerHale Cybersecurity, Privacy and Communications Webinar: Regulation of Biometric Data

JANUARY 11, 2018
WEBINAR

Join WilmerHale for the first session of the 2018 Cybersecurity, Privacy and Communications Webinar Series, during which Partner Jonathan Cedarbaum and Senior Associate Arianna Evers will review the current legal landscape surrounding the collection and use of biometric data and the implications for companies in the coming year.

Topics of discussion will include:

- recent litigation trends and strategies under state biometric privacy laws;
- proposed state and federal legislation to regulate biometric data;
- privacy and data security concerns relating to facial recognition technology; and
- international approaches to regulating biometric data.
