

American University Law Review: 33rd Annual Federal Circuit Symposium Featuring Chief Judge Sharon Prost

JANUARY 26, 2018

The American University Law Review hosted their annual Federal Circuit Symposium, the nation's first and only academic symposium that is dedicated exclusively to the US Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. This year's event featured a keynote interview with Chief Judge Sharon Prost, US Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. The keynote interview, was conducted by WilmerHale Counsel and former clerk to the judge Rachel Weiner Cohen, along with AUWCL Professor Christine Haight Farley. The discussion covered the judge's early career as a labor attorney to how the Federal Circuit has changed over her past 17 years on the bench.
