

The 3rd Annual European Financial Forum: Building a New Future for International Financial Services

JANUARY 31, 2018

The Financial Times, in partnership with IDA Ireland, presents the third edition of the European Financial Forum, bringing together international and Irish industry executives, policy makers, regulators and thought leaders to explore the disruptive forces that are shaping the financial sector into the future and discuss where opportunities lie.

The European Financial Forum will build on the success of previous editions and provide a fresh perspective the crucial issues impacting the financial industry today, including its role, priorities, drivers of growth and competitive environment. Through a combination of keynote addresses, on-stage interviews and panel discussions, this event will discuss the current geo-political and financial climate and the latest macroeconomic and regulatory scenarios.

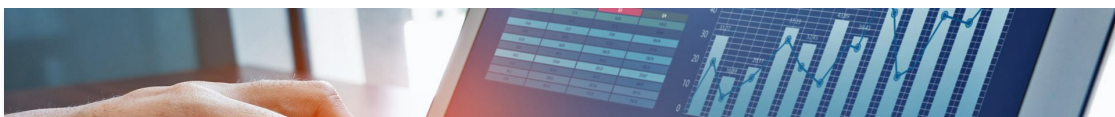

WilmerHale Special Counsel Petal Walker will participate on the panel “Diversity in Financial Services.”
