

Boston Bar Association: CLE - Conducting Due Diligence and Allocating Risk in Environmental Transactions

APRIL 12, 2018

This program will review the critical decisions of when and how to conduct due diligence in transactions that involve complex environmental and energy components. It will include an in-depth presentation on working with LSPs to conduct an environmental review according to industry standards and a high-level discussion of various methods of allocating risk with insurance products and contract provisions.

WilmerHale Special Counsel David Gold will be speaking at this event.
