

ABA Section of International Law: 2018 Annual Conference

APRIL 17-21, 2018

The 2018 Annual Conference of the ABA Section of International Law will bring together more than 1,000 attendees with lawyers from over 100 countries, including private practitioners, in-house counsel, academics, and lawyers in the public sector to discuss this year's theme of "At the Crossroads: The Fusion of Private and Public International Law."

Several WilmerHale partners will participate in panel discussions during the meeting:

- Trevor Cook – "The State of International Law Harmonization: From Fair Trade and Human Rights to Intellectual Property"
- Ron Machen – "Enforcement without Borders: The Rise of Cross Border Anti-Corruption Investigations and their Impact on Global Corruption"
- John Walsh – "International Anti-Corruption Proceedings: Cooperation Between Latin America and Other Jurisdictions in International Proceedings"
