

Daily Journal's 2018 Patent Disputes Forum North

APRIL 18, 2018

WilmerHale is a proud sponsor of the 2018 Patent Disputes Forum North, hosted by the Daily Journal. This conference is a full day rich in valuable strategic information to ensure attendees are prepared for upcoming developments and challenges in the IP landscape. Delegates will walk away armed with best practices and insights concerning key IP issues that impact their clients, companies and careers.

WilmerHale Partner Mark Selwyn will join a panel titled “The Role of Big Data/Analytics in Patent Litigation,” which will address the growing role of data analytics and artificial intelligence in the patent litigation environment. Additionally, WilmerHale Partner Mark Flanagan will join a panel titled “Where are We Now and How Did We Get Here?” that will discuss timely and important developments, trends and decisions affecting patent litigation.
