

DC Bar: Dispute Boards in Latin America and Beyond

MAY 17, 2018

Many international construction contracts include provisions establishing a standing Dispute Board or other similar body to resolve disputes that arise during the course of the contract. This program will look at the use of Dispute Boards and other similar mechanisms in construction contracts in Latin America and beyond. Among other things, it will consider the benefits and challenges from the perspective of various stakeholders, including owners, contractors, and the international development banks involved in funding mid-to-large scale infrastructure projects.

Speakers:

- Maria Eugenia Roca, Procurement Technical Advisor, Office of the Vice Presidency for Countries, Inter-American Development Bank
- Rachael Kent, WilmerHale
- Robert J. Smith, FIDIC Dispute Board Member
- Patricia O. Sulser, Chief Counsel and Global Legal Team Leader, International Finance Corporation/IFC InfraVentures
- Dante Figueroa, Partner, Woss & Partners, PLLC (Moderator)
