

Latin American Society of International Law's Annual Conference

SEPTEMBER 23, 2018
BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

Senior Associate Manuel Casas spoke at the Latin American Society of International Law's annual conference in Buenos Aires. Mr. Casas participated in the panel on international investment law and talked about the potential alternatives to investment arbitration in the region, the risks of a return to diplomatic protection and potential incentives for corruption. The conference was attended by a mix of lawyers, academics and government officials.
