

USMCA—The Modernized NAFTA Symposium

NOVEMBER 15–16, 2018
COURT OF APPEAL OF QUEBEC

Partner Naboth van den Broek spoke about what's going on in global trade at a conference jointly organized by the American Bar Association and the Montreal Bar. His presentation covered everything from the Trump Administration's trade policy and the recently concluded USMCA (NAFTA 2.0), to the CPTPP, CETA, Regional Trade Agreements in Asia and elsewhere around the world, WTO reform and the WTO Appellate Body, and the future of international trade agreements and of the rules-based international trading system in general, as well as the major geopolitical forces that are leading to the current situation and that will define the global economic landscape for years to come.
